LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Jim Goerges, leave my unsurpassed ability to come late to Mr. Monical's and Mr. Anderson's classes almost everyday without giving them a pass to my little brothers. My football ability that could have been to Chris Greer, and my ability to come late to band without being noticed to Roger Loveland, Monica Sergent, and Paula Pieper.

I, Kay Snyder, leave my height to anyone who enjoys being over 6 ft. tall with high heels, and my golfing ability to Chris Greer, also, my typing ability to anyone who is unfortunate enough to get it.

I, Sharon Ricks, will my spot in band to Monica McSherry and my spot in physics to Peggy Kennedy in hopes that they will enjoy them as much as I have.

I, Scott Haugen, being of sound mind and body, wish to distribute my possessions as follows: I leave my driving ability to anyone who will take it and who wants to scare the ----out of Mr. Ayd. I leave my entire beer can collection to John Pieper, who most likely will be here next year to add to it. Last, I leave my Monday mornings to anyone who is a glutton for punishment.

I, Carol Hardy, leave extra whip cream on my malts to Laura. To Non, my ability to cheer and my windshield wipers in Rocky. To "Boss" Shawn, I leave my smile, my love, and a new angel. To Patti, I leave pizzaface and coppertone. To my sisters, K.H. and K.H., good times and parties. To Carter, I leave a punch in the mouth, and to everyone I leave my "SPIRIT."

I, Juli Curtis, will all my used bubble gum to Curt, my sisterly love to Dean, my ability to control myself with crazy glue to Mrs. Schmidt, all my hours in detention to Rex Labo and Frank Ranum, and all the constitution and citizenship tests to all you underclassmen.

I, Curt Johnson, will let my little brother take over from here. Good luck Tom!

I, Teri Burrows, leave to Mr. Ayd a wheelbarrow with a spare wheel. To Kim Flemmer, I leave my counseling ability, and to Sandi Plum and Sandi Eide, I leave all the good times I had in my Senior year in hopes that they will use them next year. (P! T. S. Ga.)

I, Steve Martin, leave my unequaled driving ability to any unlucky soul in Mr. Ayd's future Driver's Ed Classes.

I, Jeanne Sechser, will to my brother, Raymond, my ability to graduate, to Beth Young, I leave all of my mistakes at the T-Shirt Ink, to Joe Young, I leave a lot of good luck and my brand new combs, to Ronny Clark, I leave my ability to skip without getting caught (as I have done for a good many years), and to Mr. Sjoblad, I leave all of my thanks, as he has helped me through a lot of troubled and teary days.

I, Don Houck, will my top first trumpet chair to Joan Tweed (alias "Chick"), so that she will someday be on top. Also, I leave our midnight choir boys technique to any Peon of Pequot that has a P.A. speaker in their car.

I, Karen Haglund, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will Bradley Nelson all the luck to be the last one to waterski next year. You'll need it! To Tom Delmonico, I leave my lead foot. Maybe one day Brad and you can make it to school before noon.

I, Lori Winters, leave to Debbie Taylor, all the headaches I got from working on the annual, to Cathi Henio my seat in choir in hope that she does better than I did, to Kelvin Howieson the $3.25 he owes me and to my sisters, Jodi and Lisa, all the good and bad times I've had here in hopes they have more!

I, Dan Finn, leave my locker that is behind the doors by the small gym to anyone of the kids who crash through those doors during the day.

I, Mitzi Antolak, leave my ability to have fun in school and not get in trouble, I also leave my ability to skip classes and not get caught to my little sister and Brad Kurilla. Just remember Brad, we all were short at one time. PTLA and he will help you. GOOD LUCK Ms. Steen, somedays I know you really need it.

I, Sherrie Bandel, leave my coveted spot in chemistry, Math IV, and physics to anyone who can keep his pencil in equilibrium with his paper. To my sister, Ruth, I leave my percentage errors from my labs in hopes she'll never exceed them. To everyone else, I leave knowing things will never be the same.

I, Chris McSherry, leave to Roger Loveland, my wrestling skills. I leave Joan Tweed my trumpet playing ability. I leave Mr. Ayd my pimp shoes. I leave my water pipe made out of a beaker, glass tubing, and a broken test tube to Mr. Hallbeck. I leave my skills of cutting people down to Mr. Heslop, I leave my used up lunch ticket to Mr. Anderson. I leave my two track silks, three football jerseys, two basketballs, one stop watch and two basketball uniforms to the sports department. Finally, I leave to know, that one day, when I'm sitting in the Oval Office, I will be proud to say, "Yes, I went to Pequot Lakes High School."

I, Sam Hall, leave my great skiing ability to anyone who wants it. My accident proneness to anyone who has enough money to pay the hospital bills, and my school spirit to all the classes below me.

I, Patti Robideaux, leave my ability to get involved to anyone who wants a headache.

I, Wayne Frost, leave to Tim Gravdahl all the good times that I didn't have and a few of the ones that I did. Also, I leave the pain of filling out the senior year schedule to all the juniors.

I, Leslie Thrane, leave to my sophomore brother, the vast knowledge I gained, and my good grades in Mr. Hallbeck's chemistry class. I also leave to my brother the wonderful times in Mr. Monical's advanced(?) algebra and Math IV classes. To my junior-high sister, I leave all good times and experiences I had during my years at Pequot. To all other underclassmen, I leave, knowing things will not be the same after our fantastic class has left(things can only get better)

I, Marj Petersen, will the horrid job of collecting money on Butcher's bus every Christmas to LuAnn Williams.

I, Ralph Pahl, being of sound mind (no comments, please), and body, bequeath my former teachers to the students coming up through the ranks (boy, did you guys get stuck!). To Mrs. Hauser, I leave all my old pencils and worn-out erasers. To Mrs. Loken, I leave a code-breaking book, in case she ever gets another student with handwriting like mine. To Mr. Monical, I leave my winged sandals and my Mickey Mouse stopwatch. To Mr. Ayd, I leave a crash helmet, a bottle of tranquilizers, and a full set of goalies pads.

I, Jill Macnamara, will to Martha Maloney, the volleyball scorebooks, and to Mr. Wenschlag, the fun of driving around town to catch kids off campus, also, to Leigh Ann Meyer, my elder, one more year in high school. Ha! Ha!

I, Pam Lowrie, leave my ability to get along with Mrs. Hauser, to Randy Lunder.

I, Rick Perkins, being of sound mind and body, will to Mark Engen, my ability to ski in the Polish Pro Circuit. To my sister, Shelly, I leave my ability to be a pilot of a 747.

I, Cathy Derksen, will to Janet and Larry the ability to bear quietly the unbearable, with the realization that it doesn't last forever; to those who hate me, I leave forgiveness; to Mr. Schmidt and the band, many thanks for the encouragement, confidence, and spirit; and to Mr. Sjoblad, with special thanks, an everlasting smile.

I, Alvina Hinrichs, leave all of my homework problems to Marvin and Earl Hinrichs.

I, Esther Blades, leave my seat in the library to anyone who wishes to use it, my study habits to Emy Stall, all the "Good Luck" in this world to little Robert Curtis, and last but not least, I leave happy to be a graduate from Pequot Lakes High School.

I, Patrick Gordon Loven, leave P.L.H.S. and the many many friends in all grades that made this portion of my life one that shall never be forgotton for as long as I live, and should I leave here never to return, the memories shall bring nothing but joy followed by loneliness for the many friends, teachers, and townspeople of Pequot Lakes, MN "My Home."

I, Leah Kerger, leave to my little sister, Krys, all the guts I didn't have to skip without Daddy Kerger finding out, and to Mr. Ayd, all his squarshed tomotoes.

I, Julie Van Nest, leave my tolerance to play basketball at this school to Joan and Jean Starrka.

I, Nancy Dunn, leave this school #1 on Mr. Wallin's "you-know-what" list. I also leave the ability to get stuck in a ditch during a tornado warning to Debbie Altman.

I, Audrey Perkins, leave this school with no regret what-so-ever.

I, Brenda Halter, will to Mrs. Loken, 10,000 corrected grammar tests and 100 years of clean desks and to Mr. Ayd his Girl Scout cookies which have been lost in the mail all this time.

I, Jean Russell, leave 1/2" of my height to anyone 4' 11 1/2", so that they too may be over 5'.

I, Joe Sabyan, leave to John Oxbourgh, Eric Johnson, and Stu, my little brother, the ability to successfully rattle the teachers cages and have as much fun at it as I did. Give it to them guys! For all of the people that I told would be remembered in my will, but are to numerous to list, I didn't forget you, I just don't remember all of you, or any of you for that matter.

I, Bunny Oaks, will my ability to...Uh..Uh.. pass Mr. Anderson's classes with flying colors to my little brothers and sisters wishing them luck, they are going to need it.

I, Scrank Zwack, leave my growth, my basketball, to Shawn Greer (Boss). My eating habits to Carrie and Suzie Hardy, my scholastic abilities (ha,ha) to Action Jackson, my ability to elude my superiors to Chew-it, and all of the great times Pieper and I had, to anyone who wants to take the blame for all of the trouble we got into doing it.

I, Joe Fierst, leave to Mr. Wallin, my hardest ten pages of terms. To Mr. Hallbeck I leave all of my science jokes. To Mr. Anderson, I leave all of my old lunch tickets. If I had any other objects to leave behind I would. The teachers in the above sentence may not have any of my belongings unless I pass.

I, Angie Hedman, leave my ability to plant my foot in my mouth at all times to Jody Winters, my track sweats with the bugs still in it, to Monica McSherry, and to all of the underclassmen of Pequot, my ability to survive "Dares!"

I, David Johnson (FRED) leave my sneakiness to my brother Doug, my wisdom to Dennis, my brain to Mr. Hallbeck, my pencil to Mrs. Schmidt and the countless number of times that I sneaked up town to Mr. Wenschlag. Also, I leave all my wildlife calls to Mr. Wallin, my money to Jeanne Doerfler, and most of all, I give my locker to the next turkey that goes to this school.

I, Jeff Roggenkamp, leave my spot on the basketball bench to Chris and Shawn Greer.

I, Jackie Labo, leave my ability to get along with Mr. Koch and other fine teachers, to my little brother, Rex. I'm sure he'll need it.

I, Sue Berry, will to Curt Taylor and Bill Johnson, my smile. I also leave my shyness to Laura Nelson. To Jeremy, Stu, Chris, Erick, and John, I leave my good grades which they asked for.

I, DaNette Grabow, leave to Steven Durham, my thanks for all his helpfulness concerning my car. I leave to Kylen Grabow, my thanks for the money he borrows me to get the parts, which Steven takes out of my car, fixed, and I leave to John Durham, (who makes paper thin cookies) my ability to make thick chocolate chip cookies with more than "one" chocolate chip.

I, Bunny Lundberg, leave all the dirty dishes in the world to Mark and Matt Johnson, my empty tip jar to Marcia Musolf, my British accent to Penny Matros, my unique typing ability to my sister Donna and my calm and cool thinking during crises to my brother John; lots of good times to everybody else and that's the name of that tune.

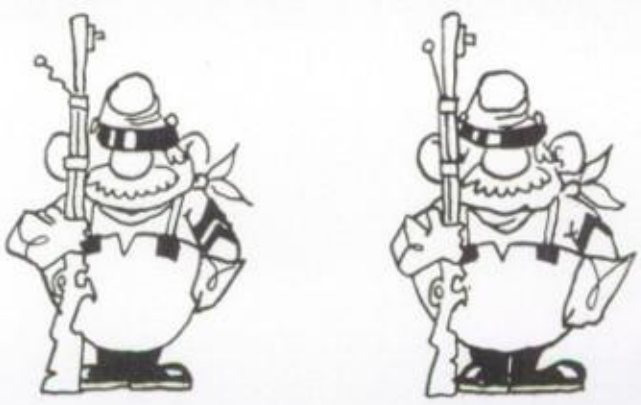
SR. CLASS PLAY

A DOUBLE BARRELLED DETECTIVE STORY



The Play Cast would like to thank

Mrs. Loken, Angie, Teri and to make it a success!!

"all others" who helped us

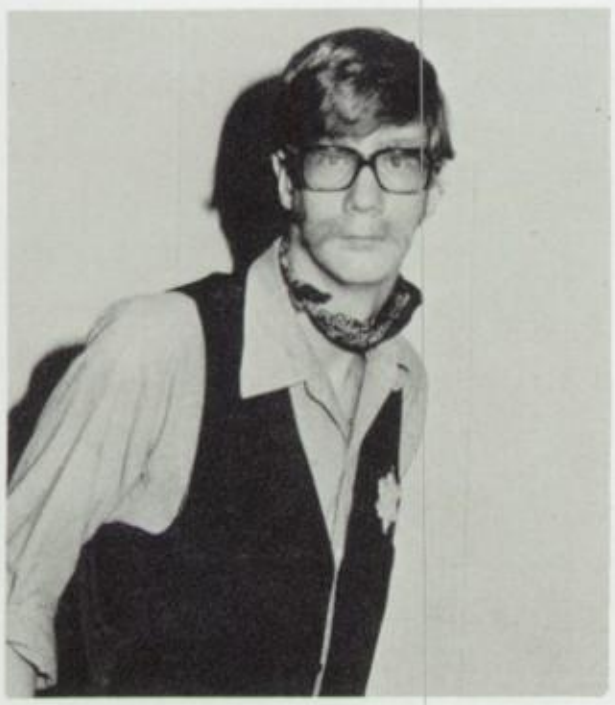
Oh? This isn't toilet paper!?

I dare you to take one more step.

Oh Sammy, you're kidding?



Look into my eyes honey.

Stay calm Mrs. Hogan.

STUDENT COUNCIL

WE, THE STUDENT COUNCIL, WOULD LIKE TO EXTEND OUR THANKS AND APPRECIATION TO DAVE SJOBLAD FOR HIS DIVINE GUIDANCE AND WISDOM THROUGHOUT THE COURSE OF THE YEAR. WITHOUT HIM, VERY LITTLE WOULD HAVE GOTTEN DONE.

newspaper staff

The Newspaper

The purpose of the school newspaper is to learn how to apply writing skills, to practice use and to gain experience in the field of journalism. We feel that the newspaper can be used as a valuable outlet for students' and teachers' opinions. Next year we hope to have more student support and participation.

We especially would like to say thanks to Mrs. Hauser for all her time and effort.

ANNUAL STAFF

We would like to take this opportunity to say thanks to all that made this annual the way it is, to all the people and businessess who bought ads, and to all the people who sold ads.

We would like to thank all teachers who cooperated with us in our time of need.

Special thanks to Mr. Johnson for all his expert help, patience and the valuable time he gave us.

Mr. Rod Johnson:
Annual Staff Advisor

Editor: Lori Winters

This year it has been my pleasure to work with the fine individuals we have on the yearbook staff.

The challenge was greater this year but the staff overcame each obstacle and resolved each problem.

I would especially like to commend Editor Lori Winters, Terri Burrows, Debbie Taylor, and Connie Avenson for their extra work and for seeing the job to its completion.

Advisor,
R Johnson
